ASSOCIATION MEETING ON “ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL HERITAGE OF MADURAI: TRADITION AND TRANSITION”

Objectives:

- To understand the principles and methods of archaeology.
- To gain knowledge about archaeological sites in and around Madurai.

Report:

The Department of History organized an Association Meeting on the topic “Archaeological and Historical Heritage of Madurai: Tradition and Transition” on 7th August 2019. The Guest of Honour, Dr. S. Kannan, Assistant Professor of History, Raja Doraisingam Government Arts College, Sivagangai, delivered an engaging and informative lecture.

E.M.GOPALAKRISHNA KONE YADAVA WOMEN'S COLLEGE

Dr. Kannan highlighted the importance of archaeological excavations, particularly the ongoing work at Keezhadi, and the significance of the artefacts unearthed there. He elaborated on the rich cultural heritage of Madurai, tracing its evolution from the Sangam Age to the British period. He also discussed various historical monuments and their role in preserving the legacy of Madurai.

Programme Outcomes:

1. Students understood the basic principles of archaeology and its significance.
2. Students gained knowledge about major archaeological sites in and around Madurai, including Keezhadi.
3. The session enhanced awareness of Madurai's rich historical and cultural heritage from ancient to colonial times.

Feedback:

- The programme was highly useful for the students to learn about the archaeological richness and historical significance of Madurai.
