in student governance. Following the address, the newly elected Union members took an oath, pledging their commitment to their roles and responsibilities.

The orientation included sessions on Effective Leadership Strategies, focusing on essential leadership qualities and methods for leading a team. Discussions covered best practices for managing student activities, meetings, and events. Additionally, the impact of effective student governance on campus life and personal development were explored.

Students appreciated the opportunity to participate and expressed their enthusiasm about applying the skills they learned to improve their academic performance and overall student experience.

Programme Outcomes:

1. The event successfully contributed to the development of students' leadership and administrative skills, preparing them for effective participation in the College Union.
2. Students gained confidence in their abilities to lead and manage, enhancing their readiness for future challenges.
3. The event laid a strong foundation for the new College Union, ensuring a cohesive and motivated team.
