CONSULTANCY PROGRAMME

Objectives:

To enable students of History to learn the making and marketing of cottage products as part of experiential and skill-based learning, by connecting traditional crafts and cottage industries with historical practices, thereby promoting heritage preservation, entrepreneurship, and self-reliance.

Programme Outcomes:

- Apply historical knowledge to the practical making of selected cottage products.
- Demonstrate basic skills in producing cottage products using traditional and sustainable methods.
- Analyze the socio-economic role of cottage industries in different historical periods.
- Develop entrepreneurial skills related to small-scale production, costing, and selling.
